Details of Ride e.g. Host Arrival Time, Pot Luck Supper, Breakfast, Corrals, Water Availability, Ride Start Time, Music.

June 28 – Friday Arrive any time after 4pm set up camp for yourself. Supper Friday at 6 pm, at the Ranch groundwork 7 to?

June 29 – Saturday Breakfast ish then groundwork lunch noonish, saddle and ride for the afternoon, supper 530 ish, Saturday evening is free time or if you would like to work on anything we have covered. Later we will have a fire (hopefully no fire bans) bring you favorite beverage and visit.

June 30 – Sunday breakfast 8ish, saddle and ride, lunch, noonish, ride for the remainder for the afternoon. Time to pack up and head home, relaxed, tired and re-energized - ready to work on many new skills and perfect some in various areas.

The "ish" with the times is because sometimes we run into problems that require that little bit of extra time to sort out problems.

(The Cook is understanding) Bring a friend and enjoy a weekend with your horse and no meals to prepare. Please advise Alice if you have non-participating family or friends with you. The cooks will need to know how many to cook for and meal costs, for non-participants, can be discussed prior to the event. If you have allergies please advise Alice a.s.a.p. to be sure food is available for specific issues.

Bring feed for your horse and water buckets. Any question please text or call, Alice Todd at 403-601-0306. There will be pens available for your horse(s), the cost for the weekend is 150.00 per horse and rider, camping, clinic and meals. If you know of someone experiencing problems with their horse let them know and invite them to join us. We hope to see you all there. As of May 14th this clinic is full but you can ask to be put on a Wait List; sometimes there are cancellations.

SATRA will subsidize members (in good standing for 2 years and greater) at a rate of $ 50.00. Club members to pay $ 100.00 to Debbie Rolinsky. Please pay prior to June 1, 2019. and make cheque payable to SATRA. We do not accept EFT's, please plan to pay by cheque or cash.
