SATRA Code of Conduct - As a SATRA member, I agree to:

Club Etiquette.

- Welcome and support new members.
- Avoid offensive language, aggression, or discrimination.
- Respect club leadership decisions and provide constructive feedback.
- Be courteous and resolve conflicts respectfully.
- Maintain respectful conduct online.
- A club is as strong as its members; stay involved

Respect for Others

- Be courteous and resolve conflicts respectfully.
- No alcohol during any ridden activities.
- Keep noise minimal, respecting nature's quiet.
- Yield to hikers, cyclists, and other riders when needed.
- Inform the host if late or unable to attend.
- Ride host will provide a SPOT phone contact

Safety

- Ride within skill level and at a safe pace.
- Follow trail signs and local rules.
- Keep horses under control, especially with other users or obstacles.
- Communicate clearly when passing others.
- Carry a basic first aid kit and water.
- Helmets are mandatory for youth, recommended for all.

Horse Care

- Ensure horse health and fitness for rides (difficulty chart available).
- Train horses to be calm around other users.
- Maintain control and avoid off-trail grazing.
- Be diligent about spacing with other horses. Some do not like to be crowded.
- Inspect tack and gear regularly.

Environmental Respect

- Stay on trails to protect wildlife and prevent damage.
- Carry out all litter; leave no trace.
- Do whatever possible to leave no horse trace either.
- Avoid defacing trees, signs, or fences.
- Avoid disturbing wildlife, plants, and natural features.
- Ride responsibly, especially on fragile or muddy trails

Legal Compliance

- Follow all relevant laws and obtain required permits.
- Do not trespass on private/restricted property.

Acknowledgment By signing below, I acknowledge reading and agreeing to abide by the SATRA Code of Conduct. Non-compliance may result in disciplinary action by the Board.
